

Forge International Friendships

by hosting with AnB Education

Each friend represents a world in us, a world possibly not born until they arrive. Having an international friend brings together not only two people, but also two countries, two languages, and two cultures.

Join thousands of our host families to welcome international students from across the world with one of the country's leading nonprofit intercultural exchange organizations. This unforgettable experience will open your eyes to all the adventures you can have!

Opportunity to visit your International Peer's home country!!

Liu, a 16-year old girl from China, feels excited about spending 1 academic year with an American host family. Talented in drawing and swimming, Liu also does well in English and History. "I am a friendly and honest person," said Liu. "I look forward to immersion in the American educational system."

Kim applied for the exchange program with an ambition—master the English language. Native Korean and also proficient in Japanese language, the 15-year old girl is easy-going and positive. She also loves playing piano and drawing.

Shin, a 16-year old girl from Korea, is enthusiastic about learning American culture and experiencing the lifestyle here. An avid cat lover, Shin is honest, warm hearted and open minded. She enjoys drawing and cooking in her spare time.

Tram, a 15 year girl from Vietnam, can't wait to explore the United States to learn more about the culture and people here. Willing to help out around the house, she is a kind and outgoing girl, who also enjoys playing guitar. She will be a great addition to your family.

Lee's 2018 new year resolution is set to come true—AnB's exchange program provides an opportunity for the 16-year old Korean girl to learn American culture and practice cooking. "I'd also like to try something I haven't done in Korea, such as cheerleading and orchestra," said Lee who's been doing well in Science and enjoying listening to music and watching movies.
